Barn Cottage, 3 Uffa Magna, Mickleover, Derby, DE3 0SN

Summary Description

This attractive two-bedroom barn conversion is situated at the southern entry to Mickleover, Derby, within a sought-after development of converted former farm buildings and contemporary homes. Offering the charm of a character property combined with practical modern living, it enjoys a desirable position close to the village centre, while benefitting from excellent commuter links to Derby and beyond.

The home provides a wealth of features typical of a barn conversion, including tall ceilings, exposed beams and a split-level floor design. A storm porch leads into the welcoming entrance hallway, with access to a generous galley kitchen opening directly to the private courtyard garden. A versatile dining room or study also benefits from garden access, while a short rise of steps leads to a comfortable lounge with a pleasant outlook over the garden. The first floor presents a double bedroom and family bathroom, followed by a further short flight of steps leading to the principal bedroom. Externally, the property includes driveway parking and a garage, complementing its individual style and practicality.

Mickleover is a well-regarded suburb of Derby, offering a strong sense of community alongside excellent local amenities. The village provides a range of shops, cafés, restaurants and leisure facilities, as well as reputable schools for families. Its position also ensures easy access to the A38, A50 and M1, making travel to Derby city centre, Burton, Nottingham and surrounding areas straightforward. Public transport links are readily available, enhancing the appeal of this characterful home.
