Summary Description

Located at the foot of a popular cul de sac in Tutbury, this well presented three bedroom detached home offers a smart balance of comfortable living space, practical features and an attractive rear outlook. Extending to 89 square metres (958 square feet), the property is ideally suited to first time buyers, growing families, downsizers or buy to let investors looking for a home in excellent condition within a well regarded village setting.

The accommodation is arranged around a welcoming entrance hall and includes two reception rooms, giving useful flexibility for day to day living, dining or home working. The lounge is a particularly appealing space, enjoying a double aspect with a bay window to the front, patio doors opening onto the garden, and a wood burning stove set within the chimney breast. The breakfast kitchen is another standout feature, fitted in a shaker style with integrated double oven, gas hob, useful under stairs storage and a breakfast area overlooking the garden. Upstairs, there are three well proportioned bedrooms, including a main bedroom with fitted wardrobes, together with a stylish family bathroom. Outside, the property benefits from a landscaped frontage, resin driveway, detached single garage with light and power, and a private enclosed rear garden designed for low maintenance enjoyment.

Tutbury remains a popular Staffordshire village thanks to its blend of everyday amenities, historic character and convenient commuter links. The village offers shops, pubs, cafes and access to local services, while rail travel is available from nearby Tutbury and Hatton station. Staffordshire County Council provides school admissions and school transport information for the area, and Tutbury is also well placed for travel towards Burton upon Trent, Derby and Uttoxeter, with bus links serving Burton and Uttoxeter and wider road connections available via the surrounding network.
