Property Description

For Sale by Public Auction

Little Croft is a charming black and white three bedroom cottage, situated within the quaint village of Wyson, Brimfield. Featuring an abundance of character features with a wealth of exposed timbers and traditional thatched roof as well as the benefit of a pretty cottage garden that wraps around the property. The interior layout is both cozy and functional, providing a warm and inviting atmosphere.

Brimfield is conveniently located approximately 5 miles south of the ever-popular historic medieval market town of Ludlow. The village thrives with a close-knit community, a reputable public house - The Salwey Arms, a parish church, a community centre and a garage with shop. It is surrounded by some of the most beautiful countryside in the area. Just a short drive away there are further amenities, supermarkets, doctors surgeries, primary and secondary schools and restaurants all located within Ludlow's town centre.

Approaching the property there is a driveway suitable for multiple cars, alongside this is a garage which has been useful as a storage space for the current owners, but could also provide further parking.

Walking under a floral arch you are greeted by the properties beautiful front garden which has an abundance of mature bushes shrubs and seasonal flowers.

Entering through the front door into the hallway, a door immediately in front of you leads into the dining room. A flexible room which could serve as a home office, dining room or secondary living space. Centred with a cosy brick fireplace with a stone hearth. Which could be opened up to provide a working fire place.

Moving into the living room a bright open space with access directly into the back garden. This room also benefits from a large open brick fireplace with stone hearth. With ample space for furniture making a perfect family sitting room.
