The Property

This immaculate and characterful house has been much improved by the current owners and is positioned in beautiful Warwickshire countryside within the grounds of a former Victorian hotel off the Fosse Way and near the Hamlet of Eathorpe. The property is well situated for access to some of Warwickshire's prettiest villages as well as being conveniently located for access to Leamington Spa and Southam including fantastic links to London.

Set in a delightful courtyard setting providing spacious and well appointed two bedrooomed and two bathroom accommodation, the master bedroom featuring a dressing area and en-suite.

Outside there is a private rear garden with garden room, a communal courtyard, beautiful communal grounds, allocated car parking for two cars and visitors parking.

A viewing is essential to appreciate the character, situation and flexibility of accommodation to be fully appreciated
