

Knights Lane, Stratford-Upon-Avon, CV37 7BP

Property Description

Incentives Offered By Vendor

Situated in the sought after village of Tiddington, this beautifully presented two bedroom semi detached retirement bungalow offers comfortable, independent living in a peaceful yet well connected setting, complete with private front and rear gardens.

Inside, the property features a brand new kitchen fitted with modern appliances and an integrated breakfast bar. The spacious living room opens through patio doors into a bright conservatory, perfect for relaxing or entertaining. The main bedroom enjoys views of the private patio, while the second bedroom, with built-in wardrobe, makes an ideal guest room, dressing room, or study. A modern, level access wet room provides ease and accessibility, and new carpets and flooring throughout mean the home is ready to move straight into.

This unique, owner run development offers a warm, inclusive environment where residents can enjoy both independence and community. Facilities include an Owners' Lounge, on site dining room serving daily lunches (at a modest additional cost), and a guest suite for visiting family or friends. The landscaped communal gardens provide a tranquil space to relax and socialise.

Private parking is available close to each property, ensuring convenience and easy access. The development also benefits from 24 hour on-site staff, providing reassurance and peace of mind while promoting an independent lifestyle. Local shops and a bus stop are just a short walk away, keeping you well connected to the wider area.

Designed for a secure, happy, and active retirement, this delightful bungalow offers the perfect opportunity to enjoy life in a welcoming and supportive community.
