Location

The property is prominently situated within an established commercial parade serving the surrounding residential catchment area. The location benefits from good levels of pedestrian and vehicular passing traffic, with nearby on-street parking and regular public transport links providing convenient access for customers and staff. The surrounding road network offers straightforward connectivity to the wider town centre and regional routes, enhancing the property's accessibility and commercial appeal. The combination of a strong local customer base and established neighbouring occupiers makes this an attractive trading position for a variety of retail and service-based businesses.

Description

The property comprises a ground floor retail premises constructed in traditional construction beneath a pitched roof, offered freehold and with vacant possession. The accommodation provides a versatile commercial unit suitable for owner-occupiers or investors seeking a readily lettable retail asset. Internally, the premises is arranged to provide a predominantly open plan area to the front with a glazed shop frontage offering excellent natural light and display potential. To the rear, ancillary accommodation is provided which may be utilised for storage, office space, staff facilities or additional operational use, depending on requirements. The property offers flexibility for a range of commercial uses (subject to planning consent), including retail, professional services, health & beauty, convenience retail or café-style operators. The vacant possession provides an incoming purchaser with immediate occupation or letting potential.
