- Ground And First Floor Commercial Unit
- Prominent position on Walsgrave Road
- Approx 747ft²
- Strong Pedestrian and Vehicle Traffic

Location

Situated within the popular Ball Hill area of Coventry, an established and busy commercial district approximately one mile east of the city centre. Walsgrave Road is a well-known retail and service location, benefiting from strong pedestrian and vehicular traffic and serving a densely populated residential catchment. The area is home to a wide mix of independent retailers, cafés, takeaways and service-based businesses, creating consistent day-to-day footfall. The property is conveniently positioned for access to Coventry University, the city centre and University Hospital Coventry and Warwickshire. Excellent public transport links run along Walsgrave Road, while the nearby ring road provides access to the A45, A46 and wider motorway network.

Decription

The property comprises a ground and first floor commercial premises with a prominent frontage onto Walsgrave Road, offering excellent visibility within this busy local trading position. Internally, the accommodation is arranged to provide a main open plan retail or trading area to the front, benefiting from good natural light via the glazed shopfront. To the rear, there is additional ancillary space suitable for storage, office use or staff facilities. Upstairs you will find additional ancillary space as well as toilet facilities. The unit provides flexible accommodation suitable for a range of retail, service or professional uses (subject to the necessary consents) and would suit an owner-occupier or investor seeking premises within one of Coventry's most established local commercial areas.
