The Property

This wonderful, grade II listed property in the heart of Leicester City Centre truly is a one of a kind. Having been sympathetically restored by the current owner, Castle View is now sits as a stunning blend of character features and luxurious amenities, all housed in an incredible and historic location within the walls of the old Leicester Castle, opposite the 12th century St Mary de Castro Church.

Entering into a grand entrance hallway, the property opens into a spacious reception room and towards the back, a brand new, stunning kitchen/diner fitted with a wealth of integral appliances and premium features. Completing the downstairs portion of this wonderful home is a vast utility space and cloakroom alongside access to a downstairs, two-roomed cellar.

The first floor houses 3 double bedrooms, all with stunning views over the historical Castle View surrounds alongside a brand new family bathroom thoughtfully furnished with a range a modern, vintage style fittings. On the second floor, there is a further double bedroom and large landing area which could easily double up as an additional, versatile room or dressing area.

Outside, the property features a vast, walled garden with three individual outbuildings, all connected to mains power. The property also comes with the added convenience of optional permitted parking.

If you have ever fancied living within the walls of a castle, now could be your chance. Castle View in the historic city of Leicester represents a fabulous opportunity to own a piece of history. Built in 1850, the Grade II listed house is sited in the inner bailey of the Norman Castle, which has housed many Kings and other royalty of England including most notably, Richard III. It is also opposite the Mary de Castro Church which saw Richard III's father, Richard Duke of York and King Henry VIII knighted there and hosted the wedding of Geoffrey Chaucer, author of The Canterbury Tales.
