This first floor studio apartment is well presented and light, having been redecorated in May 2023.

It has its own entrance hall off the communal landing and this has a storage cupboard.

There is a spacious bed/sitting room, which has been opened up to access the kitchen.

This has a cooker and various storage units.

There is space for other white goods.

There is a modern shower room and outside, there is parking to the rear.

Electric heating and double glazing.

The property is conveniently situated for access to both the train station and also the many amenities in the village.

Barnham is a very popular village, offering a range of shops and take - away restaurants, as well as a mainline station to London Victoria.

Chichester to the west and Arundel to the east, both offer a wider range of shops and restaurants, as well as places of interest such as Arundel Castle.

Directions: from the main Barnham Road, take the turning into Elm Grove.

Continue into Orchard Way and after a short distance, turn right into Farnhurst Road.

You will see Warren Way on the right after a short distance.
