A detached four-bedroom home, originally converted from a barn over 50 years ago and thoughtfully extended by the current owners, who have enjoyed the property for the past five decades.

The accommodation is approached via an entrance hall, leading into a spacious kitchen/dining room and a door opening onto one of the two interconnecting flint walled gardens. The double-aspect sitting room is light and welcoming. From the opposite side of the kitchen, a door leads to a study, which in turn opens into a useful utility room with an additional external door. A ground floor cloakroom completes the accommodation on the ground floor.

Upstairs, the first floor offers a generous principal double bedroom, two further small double bedrooms, a single bedroom. There is a family bathroom comprising shower over bath, hand wash basin and WC.

Outside, the property is surrounded by attractive gardens. To the front are two charming flint-walled gardens, while to the rear there is a substantial vaulted art studio and two garages positioned against an old flint wall. Beyond the house lies a large paddock of approximately 1.75 acres, divided into three sections and including two small pony stables. A driveway runs along the right-hand side of the property, providing access to the rear gardens and paddock.

The property requires refurbishment and modernisation throughout.
