This attractive mid-terrace Victorian property, combines period charm with high-quality modern improvements throughout.

The property has been subject to refurbishment, including a full rewire and replumb, installation of a new boiler, a contemporary fitted kitchen, and a modern bathroom suite. The spacious living/dining room benefits from generous amounts of light and a open fireplace. Adjacent is the kitchen/breakfast room which has been fitted with a range of base and eye level units and integrated appliances.

The upstairs accommodation includes two well-proportioned double bedrooms, along with a fully decorated and versatile loft/hobbies room, featuring a Velux roof window and three fitted storage cupboards.

Externally, the property enjoys a south-facing rear garden, thoughtfully arranged with a brick-paved terrace and lawn, creating an ideal setting for outdoor dining and entertaining. The garden also benefits from rear twitten access, offering practical rear entry and added convenience.
