Designed by the famous local Architect, Neil Holland, this is the first time to market since Tree Tops was built 38 years ago, situated in the Hamlet of Warningcamp located in the South Downs National Park. The property boasts the most amazing far reaching views of Arundel Castle and the Downs, 1.25 acres of beautiful gardens with driveway, double garage and parking for several cars. This property has scope for extension subject to planning permission.

The accommodation comprises steps leading up to a large entrance porch, entrance hall with cloaks cupboard and a bench. Kitchen/breakfast room is fitted with a range of base and wall units, four ring electric hob, integrated dishwasher, double oven and fridge/freezer. Off the kitchen is a utility room with butler sink, boiler, shelving and space for washing machine/tumble dryer with a door to the front.

The dining room has a door onto the garden showing the views, leading onto the terrace. The sitting room also benefits from the views with a door onto the terrace, storage seats either side of the door with a brick built log fireplace. There is a second reception room at the end of the hall with doors to the garden with a brick built fireplace with an electric fire, storage seats either side of the fire and a study.

By the stairs leading to the first floor is a storage cupboard, cloakroom and a large under stairs cupboard. On the first floor there are 5 double bedrooms and a family bathroom. The principal bedroom suite has triple aspect views, fitted wardrobes with an en-suite bathroom.

On the second floor there is a useful loft room/games room with eaves storage. Outside the garden is a particular feature of the house with impressive views towards Arundel castle and the surrounding downland. There is a large paved terrace, a spacious lawn with apples and mulberry trees, beautiful flower beds and a feature fountain. There is approximately 1.25 acres of land, driveway, double garage and parking for several cars.
