A delightful and well presented Grade II Listed flint fronted cottage situated in the heart of Old Arundel. The property has a wealth of charm including period carpentry, sash windows and fireplaces and benefits from a South-facing rear garden with a useful brick built outbuilding and wonderful extensive views.

The cottage played a starring role in the recent box office hit Wicked Little Letters starring Olivia Coleman.

Situated in a sought-after location accessible to local shopping and leisure facilities. Arundel mainline station with its London and coastal service is within a mile, whilst good road links via the A27 & A29 are close by.

Upon entering the property you are welcomed into the sitting room with wood panelling, feature fireplace with gas fire and built in storage cupboard.

The kitchen is fitted with base and eye level cupboards with space for a free standing dishwasher, integrated oven & gas hob with extractor fan above and stainless steel sink with drainer. There is understairs storage area with space for fridge freezer, all white goods will be included with the sale.

The property also benefits from a rear porch ideally for storing coats and muddy boots, there is also space and plumbing for a washing machine.

On the first floor is a double bedroom to the front of the property with a decorative fireplace. There family bathroom has a white suite with shower over the bath, vanity style sink unit, w.c. and airing cupboard.

Outside is a brick-built outhouse which could make an ideal home office or hobby room with w.c., and benefits from a mezzanine level with velux window.

This sale is offered with NO ONWARD CHAIN.

The south facing rear garden is paved for ease with mature borders and enjoys wonderful far reaching views.
