An extremely well-presented detached property set within the popular coastal village of Selsey, located just yards from the beach.

The spacious and versatile accommodation is arranged over 2 floors and accommodation comprises entrance hall with stairs leading to the first floor and door to sitting room, which in turn opens onto the dining room and conservatory.

The kitchen is fitted with a range of stylish modern units with appliances including double oven, induction hob with extractor and integrated dishwasher and washing machine.

The garage has been converted to create a useful home office/snug/bedroom 5 and a downstairs cloakroom completes the ground floor accommodation.

To the first floor there are 4 double bedrooms, with en suite to bedroom 1 and further family bathroom consisting of bath with shower over, wash basin and WC.

Outside, the front provides off-road parking. The attractive rear garden is south-westerly in aspect and has been landscaped to create areas for outside entertaining amongst the established trees, plants and shrubs.
