The Buckle Marine Parade, Seaford, BN25 2QR

£1,395,000

The Buckle, as the house is named, has been referred to by many as Seaford's most iconic landmark. This large family home is spread across three floors and features a turret in the style of a small Martello tower with 360 degree views.

Upon entering the property, you are sure to be blown away by the spacious interior and stunning sea views.

Externally:

Outside there is a good size frontage, ample off road parking leading to the rear and providing access to a spacious garage, plus an enclosed rear garden area.

Situation:

Located opposite the beach and popular sailing club, the property is ideally located within a quarter of a mile of frequent bus services to Eastbourne and Brighton, and railway station with services to Victoria and Brighton via Lewes.

Seaford:

Situated between the coastal resorts of Eastbourne and Brighton and surrounded by the South down national park, the somewhat quieter coastal town of Seaford enjoys a long uncommercialised beach and promenade. The town centre offers a wide range of shops, restaurants, bars and cafes. The town also boasts two golf courses, a leisure centre, swimming pool, sailing club and railway station

An internal inspection of this glorious and iconic house is highly recommended to fully appreciate the location and unrivalled views. For further information or a viewing please do contact Rowland Gorringe on 01323 490680.
