A stunningly presented character house that has been modernised by the current owners and yet retains much of the original features. Once 2 rooms the light and spacious through aspect living/dining room measures 21', has stripped wood floors as well as a green tiled fireplace. The kitchen leads off the dining area and looks out onto part of the rear garden, a further doorway leads to the utilities cupboard/area, which has a door onto the garden. At the top of the stairs the first door is to the modern family bathroom with airing cupboard. Bedrooms 1 and 3 sit to the front, with bedroom 1 having cast iron fireplace, built in wardrobes and bay window. Bedroom 2 also has a cast iron fireplace, fitted wardrobes and overlooks the rear.

The landscaped rear courtyard garden is predominately laid to patio, is easterly facing, with secure side access, raised side bed and has a low maintenance lawn. To the front is a herring bone style brick block drive with raised raised bed to the side.

Features include original stripped wood flooring, feature fireplaces, panelled doors and bannisters.

A local parade of shops, bus services and Seaford Leisure Centre can be found nearby in Alfriston Road. Whilst Seaford town centre, with its comprehensive range of shops, cafes, restaurants, pubs, seafront promenade and beach, bus services to Eastbourne and Brighton as well as railway station with services to London Victoria, can all be found within approximately one mile. Access to the Southdowns is also less than a mile away.
