Ash Croft, Evesham Road

Stow-on-the-Wold, Cheltenham, GL54 1EJ

A substantial, detached, modern, Cotswold stone house with gardens, parking and double garage on the edge of a market town.

Description

Detached Cotswold stone house built in 2008 under a pitch slate roof with a double garage and front and rear gardens. Particular features include tiled downstairs, wooden flooring upstairs, stone fireplace, open plan kitchen, double glazing, solar panels and electric charging point.

The accommodation comprises an entrance hallway, cloakroom, study, sitting room, dining room, kitchen/living room and utility on the ground floor. On the first floor there are four double bedrooms, two with ensuites and a main bathroom. Outside there is a double garage, electric charging point, front and rear gardens with ample parking.

Location

Ash Croft is on the outskirts of Stow-on-the-Wold, off the Evesham road and down a private drive.

Stow-on-the-Wold is situated in an elevated position and came to prominence during the 17th and 18th Centuries primarily due to the wool trade. As such, many fine buildings were constructed around The Square, for which the town is well known. There is an excellent variety of hotels, guest and public houses. Many of the shops are boutique style and are sufficient for everyday requirements and in addition there is a recently extended supermarket on the northern edge of the town.

Bourton-on-the-Water is 4 miles to the south and Moreton-in-Marsh is 4 miles to the north. Both have an extensive range of shops and facilities. Bourton-on-the-Water benefits from The Cotswold School, a public leisure centre and a recently extended medical centre. Moreton-in-Marsh also benefits from a range of hosteries, a new NHS hospital and medical centre. Local train stations in Moreton-in-Marsh and Kingham provide frequent services to London and Oxford.

The larger commercial and cultural centres nearby are, Cheltenham (19 miles), Stratford-upon-Avon (21 miles) and Oxford (30 miles).
