Stonelea Hoo Lane Chipping Campden, GL55 6AZ

An attractive, detached Cotswold stone bungalow set on a generous plot in a sought-after town. Featuring a south-facing garden, the property also offers potential to convert the loft.

Description

Stonelea is a detached bungalow constructed of natural Cotswold stone under a deep pitched and tiled roof. It has a gabled front facade with double glazed casement leaded light effect windows set within cut stone window reveals and is well positioned within the plot. There is ample parking and a single garage together with the front garden. The rear garden is south facing and a particular feature of the property.

Location

Chipping Campden is a popular and mainly unspoilt Cotswold Market Town with a wide High Street with an interesting mix of period properties. It has a good range of day to day amenities including a Co-operative food store, chemist, Post Office, dentist, opticians, library, doctors surgery, two primary schools and well respected secondary school as well as a number of hostelryes, tea rooms and other shops. In addition it has the attractive Parish Church of St James.

Moreton-in-Marsh is about 6.5 miles. It has a mainline station with a service to London Paddington via Oxford and Reading.

Accommodation

Stonelea offers comfortable accommodation with a hallway leading to the sitting room, dining room, kitchen, and study/bedroom three. There are two further double bedrooms together with a well-appointed bathroom with separate and generous shower cubicle.

Stonelea features a generous roof space, measuring 36'1" (max) x 25'7" (into eaves). It is understood that, subject to any necessary consents, this area could be suitable for the creation of additional accommodation.
