2 Eastview Gardens

Union Street, Stow-on-the-Wold, GL54 1BU

A charming semi-detached reconstituted Cotswold stone home in a central location in Stow-on-the-Wold.

Description

2 Eastview Gardens is an attractive semi-detached house constructed of reconstituted Cotswold stone under a tiled roof. It is beautifully presented and has a pretty facade with two gabled dormer windows and a canopy set above the front door.

It is a spacious home with a lovely sitting room fitted with a wood burning stove and double doors leading to the enclosed rear garden. The kitchen is fitted with an AGA and there is a separate utility room and cloakroom. There are three bedrooms on the first floor together with a family bathroom.

Location

2 Eastview Gardens is set in a small close of four similar properties. There is a shared tarmac drive leading to designated single garages and parking spaces.

The property is within a short walk of The Town Square. Stow-on-the-Wold is an attractive market town with the parish church of St Edward, together with a wide variety of shops and boutiques. In addition, it has a good range of hostelrys and a primary school.

Bourton-on-the-Water is 4 miles to the south and has a similar range of facilities including the well respected Cotswold secondary school and a public Sports centre. There are mainline train stations situated at Moreton-in-Marsh (4 miles) and Kingham (5 miles) with regular services to London Paddington via Oxford and Reading.

Cheltenham, 18 miles, is the principal commercial and cultural centre in the area and has excellent shopping facilities with most of the nationally known High Street retailers represented. It also has a wide number of hostelrys, a multiplex cinema, together with the Everyman Theatre as well as a number of annual festivals including the National Hunt, Literature, Music and Cricket festivals.
