LOCATION

Stow-on-the-Wold is an historic and vibrant market town situated in the heart of the Cotswolds, and is home to a wide range of up-market independent retail shops, including art and antique galleries, a bookshop, an art shop, a traditional butchers and grocers, a delicatessen, plus a pharmacist and post office. High street outlets include Fairfax & Favor, Sam Wilson, Crew Clothing and The Cotswold Company. The town benefits from a number of distinguished hotels and restaurants, several coffee shops and cafes, all making the town the preserve of both the local community and visitors, from home and abroad.

The town is well connected to neighbouring Cotswold towns such as Burford, Chipping Campden, Bourton on the Water and Broadway, as well as wider transport networks with Kingham (approx. 5 miles) and Moreton in Marsh (approx. 4.5 miles) railway stations providing a direct service to London Paddington (from 90 minutes).

DIRECTIONS

From our Stow-on-the-Wold office, on Digbeth street, cross over onto Sheep Street. Turning right up the hill, Brewery Yard will be on your left and Unit 4 is situated on the left hand side of the court yard.

BREWERY YARD

Unit 4 forms part of the wider Brewery Yard development which was created in the late 1980s and is constructed with Cotswold stone walls under a blue slate roof. Brewery Yard consists of 8 units in total, and includes an interiors studio, dental practice, chiropractor, and optician. The units are set around a landscaped courtyard with pedestrian access to Sheep Street.

UNIT 4

The unit comprises an attractive display frontage and entrance and is currently set up as a show room and retail space on the ground floor, with stairs leading to the first floor which includes a W.C and storage area.

Unit 4 currently houses a bridal shop.
