2 West View

Great Rissington, Cheltenham, GL54 2LH

A substantial three bedroom semi-detached Cotswold stone house occupying a superb elevated position on the edge of this popular village, with a large garden, parking and outbuildings

LOCATION

2 West View is set in the heart of the popular village of Great Rissington, a classic Cotswolds village with an active community centred around the village primary school, The Lamb Inn, St John the Baptist village church and village cricket team and sports and social club. Bourton-on-the-Water, Stow-on-the-Wold and Burford are all within a 6 mile radius providing a comprehensive range of services including supermarkets, shops, restaurants and boutiques, doctors, dentists and excellent local schooling including the award winning Cotswold School at Bourton.

The regional centres of Cheltenham, Oxford and Cirencester are all within easy travelling distance together with a wide range of cultural and sporting pursuits. There are main line rail connections nearby at Kingham (London Paddington 80 minutes) and Cheltenham (18 miles).

DESCRIPTION

2 West View comprises a substantial semi-detached Cotswold stone house dating from around 1900 and more recently extended in matching materials by the current owners. The property occupies a superb elevated position just off the centre of the village with lovely views to the West, yet only a short walk from The Lamb Inn, village green, primary school and sports and social club. The accommodation has been tastefully updated with a triple aspect dining / family room, separate sitting room, cloakroom, rear hall and kitchen on the ground floor, with three double bedrooms and a family bathroom on the first floor. There is a paved driveway to the front and side with a garage/home office to the side and a separate semi-detached utility room/store. Set to the rear of the house is a good sized garden with summer house, and terrace to the side, the remainder being laid to lawn with a mature apple tree set centrally.
