LOCATION

Often referred to as the "Venice of the Cotswolds," Bourton-on-the-Water is one of the region's most picturesque villages, known for its low stone bridges and tranquil river setting. The village offers an idyllic lifestyle with a vibrant community atmosphere, a wide range of amenities including a Primary School, independent shops, cafés, traditional pubs, supermarkets, restaurants, churches, a leisure centre, and the highly regarded local Secondary School, The Cotswold Academy. Surrounded by stunning countryside, it is ideal for those who enjoy walking and outdoor pursuits. Bourton enjoys excellent transport connections, with regular local bus services and mainline rail links to London Paddington from nearby Kingham Station (approximately 8 miles). Its central Cotswold location provides easy access to Cheltenham, Cirencester, and Oxford, making it a desirable base for both commuters and those seeking a peaceful rural lifestyle.

DESCRIPTION

No.4 Colletts Court comprises a modern Cotswold stone house dating from the mid 1990s and occupying a very convenient setting just off the famous village High Street and ideally located for access to all the village amenities. The accommodation is arranged over three floors with a kitchen/dining room and living room on the ground floor together with a front hall, with stairs rising to the first floor with two bedrooms and a bathroom, with stairs continuing to the second floor with two further bedrooms and a shower room. Set to the rear of the house is a courtyard terrace garden and there is also parking for two cars. The property would benefit from some improvement and updating and is offered for sale with no onward chain.
