LOCATION

Compton Abdale is one of the most sought-after Cotswold villages, set off the beaten track and with a very active community. It is centred around the village church of St Oswald, which dates back to the 1400s, and the village hall, yet is conveniently located for access to Cheltenham, Cirencester and the wider Cotswolds. The market town of Northleach lies approximately 4 miles to the east, providing a range of local facilities including shops, cafes, pub, post office, pharmacy and doctors' surgery. Cirencester lies 10 miles to the south, while the region's major commercial centre of Cheltenham lies 10 miles to the west, providing a comprehensive range of services and amenities, with excellent shopping, including most of the nation's larger retailers and restaurants. Cheltenham is also home to Prestbury Racecourse, cinemas and the Everyman Theatre, and hosts major festivals, including the annual literature, jazz, science and cricket festivals. Wainway House is ideally located within easy reach of some of the Cotswolds' most sought-after destinations, including Daylesford Organic, Soho Farmhouse, Dunkertons Cider, and The Pig in the Cotswolds. The surrounding Cotswolds provide a range of rural leisure pursuits, and there is excellent access to the local footpath network.
