LOCATION

Often referred to as the “Venice of the Cotswolds,” Bourton-on-the-Water is one of the region’s most picturesque villages, known for its low stone bridges and tranquil river setting. The village offers an idyllic lifestyle with a vibrant community atmosphere, a wide range of amenities including a Primary School, independent shops, cafés, traditional pubs, supermarkets, restaurants, churches, a leisure centre, and the highly regarded local Secondary School, The Cotswold Academy. Surrounded by stunning countryside, it is ideal for those who enjoy walking and outdoor pursuits. Bourton enjoys excellent transport connections, with regular local bus services and mainline rail links to London Paddington from nearby Kingham Station (approximately 8 miles). Its central Cotswold location provides easy access to Cheltenham, Cirencester, and Oxford, making it a desirable base for both commuters and those seeking a peaceful rural lifestyle.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises a well planned end of terrace house of reconstituted stone elevations under a plain tiled roof with accommodation arranged over two floors. On the ground floor there is an interconnecting sitting room and dining room with dual aspect and French doors leading out to the rear garden and a doorway to a fitted kitchen. On the first floor there are two good sized double bedrooms and a family bathroom. Set to the front of the house is a gravelled parking area, and there is a separate vehicular access leading to a shared forecourt and a single garage with up and over door and pedestrian door to the rear, which in turn leads to the rear garden of the property. The rear garden is laid mainly to lawn being of a good size and offering potential for further extension to the main house, subject to any necessary consents. The property generally offers some scope for updating.
