Pebbles, 1 The Whitmores

Lower Slaughter, GL54 2JX

An individual detached Cotswold stone house with flexible accommodation arranged over two floors with a double garage and South facing garden set on the edge of the village.

LOCATION

Lower Slaughter is acknowledged as one of the most beautiful villages within the Cotswolds having many buildings of architectural interest and the shallow River Eye flowing through its centre. There is a fine old water mill, parish church, two hotels which are open to non residents and a petrol station and convenience store just outside the village. Bourton-on-the-Water (2 miles) provides a good range of shops suitable for everyday requirements including supermarkets, together with the Cotswold School which has an affiliated sports centre. Similarly Stow-on-the-Wold (4 miles) has a good range of shops, boutiques and hostels. There is a main line station at Kingham which has a service to London Paddington via Oxford. Cheltenham (18 miles) is the principal commercial and cultural centre in the area, being an attractive regency spa town with extensive high street and out of town retailing, together with a multiplex cinema, two theatres and many restaurants. It is home to annual festivals of Music, Literature, Jazz, Cricket and Science and has an extensive range of sporting facilities and clubs, both public and private, as well as being renowned for the annual Cheltenham National Hunt Festival.

DESCRIPTION

Pebbles comprises a substantial detached Cotswold stone house built in 1988 and in the same family ownership since new. The property is set at the entrance of a small bespoke development of just seven houses and occupying a lovely mature setting including some impressive trees and a particularly fine Wellingtonia. The house has been in the current ownership since being built in 1988 and provides flexible accommodation arranged over two floors with a wide central hall, a separate dining room, and a sitting room interconnecting with a conservatory with a lovely aspect out over the south facing garden. There is also a kitchen/breakfast room, utility room and cloakroom and the adjoining double garage. On the first floor there is a principal bedroom with en suite and dressing area, together with two further double bedrooms and a family bathroom. The house has a wide gravelled forecourt and gardens principally to the side and rear. The house has been updated and improved over the years but some further alteration and updating may be desirable.
