Situated within the rural village of Stanley Crook, this traditional two-bedroomed terrace offers the perfect balance of country living and modern comfort. Set on a row of attractive terraces, this delightful property boasts picturesque views of unspoilt countryside both to the front and rear, ensuring an ever-changing canvas of natural beauty.

Inside, discover two spacious double bedrooms and a well-appointed bathroom featuring a convenient shower. The ground floor offers excellent entertaining space with two generous reception rooms, one of which is enhanced by a cosy multi-fuel burning stove, modern fitted kitchen and a ground floor cloaks wc/utility room.

The property enjoys gardens to both the front and rear, providing ample space for outdoor enjoyment and gardening enthusiasts alike. To the rear, a driveway caters for off-street parking with enough room for up to four vehicles, a rare and valuable find in a village setting.

Stanley Crook itself is a warm and welcoming former mining village in County Durham, surrounded by rolling farmland and mature woodland. Local amenities include a highly regarded primary school and a vibrant community centre. The neighbouring villages of Crook and Billy Row offer additional facilities, while the tranquil environment ensures a sense of escape from the bustle, yet with excellent links to the wider region.

Opportunities such as this are seldom found. Book a viewing today to fully appreciate the character, space, and location of this inviting home.
