GENERAL COMMENTS

Oyster Catchers is an appealing detached bungalow situated in a delightful setting within the sought-after south coast village of Feock, conveniently positioned midway between Truro and Falmouth.

Occupying a private and well-established plot close to the parish church, the property enjoys a peaceful village environment while remaining within easy reach of the surrounding countryside, Carrick Roads and the wider amenities of both Truro and Falmouth.

The bungalow provides approximately 1,401 sq ft of generously proportioned accommodation arranged entirely over one level. Although now requiring a programme of updating and modernisation, the property offers an excellent opportunity for a purchaser to create a comfortable and individual home in one of Cornwall's most desirable waterside villages.

THE PROPERTY

A broad entrance terrace leads into a spacious reception hallway, which provides access to the principal rooms and includes useful built-in storage together with a separate cloakroom.

The lounge is an especially generous reception room, measuring approximately 20'2" x 12'6", and features a distinctive timber-lined ceiling, windows providing plenty of natural light and a fireplace forming the focal point of the room.

The separate dining room is also well proportioned and incorporates an attractive exposed timber ceiling structure. Wide glazed doors open onto the garden terrace, creating a pleasing connection between the accommodation and the outside space. A serving hatch links the dining room with the kitchen.

The kitchen is fitted with a range of base and wall-mounted units, work surfaces, a double-bowl sink and space for appliances. There is a utility room, which has a further sink, plumbing for appliances, external access and direct communication with the garage.

There are three bedrooms, two of which are generous double rooms. The principal bedroom benefits from fitted wardrobes and windows overlooking the gardens. Bedroom two also includes built-in storage, while the third bedroom, currently arranged as a study, would be equally suitable as a single bedroom, home office or hobby room.

The bathroom is fitted with a panelled bath and shower over, wash-hand basin and WC. A separate cloakroom is positioned close to the entrance hallway.

LOCATION

Feock is one of south Cornwall's most highly regarded villages, positioned on the western shores of Carrick Roads and within convenient reach of both Truro and Falmouth.

The village is renowned for its attractive waterside setting, scenic countryside and strong sense of community. Local landmarks include Feock Parish Church, while nearby Loe Beach is popular for sailing, kayaking and other water-based activities.

The National Trust gardens at Trelassick are also close at hand, offering extensive woodland walks and access to the Fal Estuary. Truro provides a comprehensive range of shopping, educational and professional facilities, while Falmouth offers further amenities, beaches, restaurants and a vibrant maritime atmosphere.
