THE PROPERTY

26 Fore Street is a three bedroom end of terrace property situated in the highly desirable village of Tregony. Known as the 'Gateway to the Roseland', the village is popular for its access to the south coast beaches, yet the village itself has all the amenities on offer including local shop, public house, schools and a doctors surgery. The property boasts many characterful features and offers generously sized rooms throughout; however is now in need of modernisation. In all, the accommodation comprises; entrance hall, sitting room and kitchen/ dining room to the ground floor with three bedrooms, a bathroom and a separate W.C. to the first floor. There is off road parking for at least two vehicles as well as an enclosed garden to the rear with plenty of flowerbeds, a greenhouse and timber storage shed.

TREGONY

Tregony is a thriving community, sometimes referred to as the "gateway to the Roseland" offering a post office, shop, pub, Churches and both primary and secondary schools are within a short 10 minute walk. The village is easily accessible to the whole of the Roseland Peninsula and hence very much a centre for tourism during the summer months. The city of Truro is about seven miles and St. Austell slightly further. The village also has the benefit of a regular bus service. The harbourside villages of Portloe and Portscatho are each about four and seven miles distant, and St Mawes is about 11 miles to the south.
