Please note that the garden features various steps and pathways, which may pose challenges for those with limited mobility.

LOCATION

Perrancombe is a delightful and sort-after hamlet situated within walking distance of Perranporth and set within a valley providing protection from the elements. It gives easy access to the stunning North Cornish Coast, and is only a five minute drive from the A30 and thus wider Cornwall. Set back from Perranporth centre, it is a peaceful hamlet with little through traffic. Most houses in Perrancombe are occupied year around by full time residents allowing a strong community atmosphere. Another popular coastal location nearby is St Agnes.

Perranporth is a vibrant coastal town on Cornwall's north coast, best known for its stunning three-mile-long sandy beach and dramatic Atlantic waves, making it a haven for surfers and beach lovers alike. Rich in history, the town is closely linked to the famous author Winston Graham and has a strong mining heritage. Today, Perranporth offers a lively atmosphere with an array of shops, cafes, pubs, and restaurants, including the unique Watering Hole, the UK's only bar on the beach. The town also serves as a gateway to the South West Coast Path, offering breathtaking clifftop walks and scenic views. With its mix of natural beauty, outdoor activities, and community spirit, Perranporth is a popular destination for both visitors and residents. The main A30 trunk road offers excellent links to the rest of the county and with easy road access to nearby Newquay airport.
