THE PROPERTY

4 Primrose Cottage is a very pretty double fronted property which is situated in the very heart of Probus on the edge of the Square. Perfectly located for the bus stop and local amenities which Probus is renowned to offer. Noted for the stone elevations with granite quoins and red brick lintels with white sash windows all under a natural slate roof. The cottage has been modernised during the current ownership yet has a fascinating history, both No. 4 and No. 5 Primrose cottages were the Duke Of York public house but have been residential properties since 1805. The property boasts an array of character features combined with modern open plan living which includes; kitchen/dining/sitting room to the ground floor with three bedrooms and a bathroom to the first floor. The property is accessed via a flight of granite steps with iron railings to either side lead to the front door. There is a scullery at the rear of the property as well as a courtyard garden and useful store as well as rear pedestrian access.

PROBUS

Probus is a thriving community approximately six miles east of Truro and a little further west of St. Austell. The village has an excellent range of everyday facilities including Parish Church, public house, primary school, farm shop, general stores with post office, village hall, Chinese and Indian takeaways and even a fish and chip shop. A very regular bus service connects to both St. Austell and Truro and here there are a wider range of facilities including banks, building societies, schools, colleges and main line railway link to London (Paddington). The village is also easily accessible to the picturesque Roseland Peninsula and many of the beaches along the south Cornish coast.
