GENERAL COMMENTS

3 Ridgeway is a detached dormer style bungalow which is situated in one of the most sought after residential locations within Probus. Ridgeway is a small residential road comprising a number of similar properties in a very quiet position and yet within a short walk of the village amenities. The property is well presented throughout and offers well proportioned ground floor accommodation with a large open plan living room and office to the first floor which could be reconfigured to provide a magnificent master suite (subject to consent) - the views from here are quite spectacular overlooking the rolling farmland surrounding the village.

The property has been well maintained and in brief comprises; to the ground floor - entrance hall, sitting room, kitchen/dining room, conservatory, three bedrooms and bathroom with separate w.c., whilst to the first floor is a large living room and office with large storage void which in all could be used as a wonderful second living area or master suite.

The front driveway provides parking for two or three vehicles and there is a garage with rear workshop as well as low maintenance gardens to the front and rear. There are double glazed windows throughout the property.

PROBUS

Probus is a thriving community approximately six miles east of Truro and a little further west of St. Austell. The village has an excellent range of everyday facilities including Parish Church, public house, primary school, farm shop, general stores with post office, village hall, Chinese and Indian takeaways and even a fish and chip shop.

A very regular bus service connects to both St. Austell and Truro and here there are a wider range of facilities including banks, building societies, schools, colleges and main line railway link to London (Paddington). The village is also easily accessible to the picturesque Roseland Peninsula and many of the beaches along the south Cornish coast.
