GENERAL COMMENTS

129 Moresk Road is an individual detached chalet bungalow located within walking distance of the city centre and excellent schools. The property is well presented throughout with light, well proportioned rooms and very high ceilings. The accommodation includes two double bedrooms on the first floor with sitting room, dining room, kitchen and shower room downstairs. All of the windows are double glazed and there is mains gas central heating. Outside is a large level rear garden that enjoys the afternoon and evening sun with many mature shrubs and plants and large lawn. A splendid summerhouse has been strategically positioned to enjoy the last of the days sun with pleasant views towards Kenwyn. At the front is a driveway that provides parking and a detached garage. There is huge potential to extend the property into a larger family home due to the excellent school catchments of Archbishop Benson and Penair as the neighbour is currently doing. The house has been re-wired in recent years.

LOCATION

129 Moresk is perfectly located for swift access into Truro and is within walking distance of Archbishop Benson primary school and Penair secondary school. Waitrose, The Great Cornish Food Hall and the Eastern Park and Ride are also close by with very regular service into the city centre and Treliske Hospital. The city of Truro is the main commercial and administrative centre of the county and here there is an excellent range of shopping facilities with many of the national multiples including a flagship Marks and Spencer store, historic Cathedral and several private and state schools. The Hall For Cornwall offers a varied programme of entertainment and there are eighteen hole golf courses at Truro, Falmouth and St. Austell. The nearby creeks of St. Clements and Malpas offer numerous delightful walks and sailing opportunities are available at Mylor and Falmouth.
