GENERAL COMMENTS

Pernickety is an attractive detached modern house which is situated along Fore Street in a very pleasant position which backs onto open countryside at the rear. The property is larger than apparent from outside with large light and spacious rooms ideal for family living. The ground floor offers a spacious entrance hall with a cloakroom, delightful triple aspect sitting room with countryside views at the rear, dining room, kitchen/breakfast room and an office or possible fourth bedroom. There are three double bedrooms and the master offers space for wardrobes as well as an en-suite bathroom. Furthermore there is a bathroom and the property is double glazed throughout with oil fired central heating.

The property is approached via metal gates which open on to the driveway providing ample parking for several cars as well as access to the garage. The gardens lie to the rear of the house and offer a pleasant sitting out area with the open countryside beyond which enjoys the sunsets in the summer months.

PROBUS

Probus is a thriving community approximately six miles east of Truro and a little further west of St. Austell. The village has an excellent range of everyday facilities including Parish Church, public house, primary school, farm shop, general stores with post office, village hall, Chinese and Indian takeaways and even a fish and chip shop. A very regular bus service connects to both St. Austell and Truro and here there are a wider range of facilities including banks, building societies, schools, colleges and main line railway link to London (Paddington). The village is also easily accessible to the picturesque Roseland Peninsula and many of the beaches along the south Cornish coast.
