GENERAL COMMENTS

52 Daniell Road is a very attractive detached period house located in a very sought after position within Truro and within walking distance of the city centre and excellent schools. The house enjoys fabulous far reaching views due to its elevated position over Truro towards Kenwyn, both viaducts and glimpses of the cathedral. The house is in need of complete renovation but offers tremendous potential and retains many period features including ornate ceiling cornices, picture rails, fireplaces and traditional sliding sash windows. All of the rooms are of a very good proportion with high ceilings and large windows that afford plenty of natural light. The accommodation includes: spacious entrance hall, sitting room, dining room, lounge, kitchen/breakfast room, utility and cloakroom on the ground floor. The first floor has five double bedrooms and bathroom. The master bedroom has an en suite shower room. There is mains gas central heating. Outside is a large rear garden that is enclosed and extremely private. It is overgrown but has many interesting shrubs, plants and fruit trees. A pedestrian path with gate provides side access to the rear garden and there is potential to create additional parking at the rear subject to consent. A short distance away in Daniell Gardens is allocated parking.

TRURO

The house is positioned near the top of Daniell Road which is a continuation of Daniell Street leading off from Lemon Street, the main route into the city centre from the Falmouth direction. Truro is renowned for its excellent shopping centre, fine selection of restaurants, bars, private and state schools and main line railway link to London (Paddington). The Hall for Cornwall is also a popular venue providing all year round entertainment and other cultural facilities include the Royal Cornwall Museum and the historic Cathedral.
