GENERAL COMMENTS

Magor Cottage is a charming and characterful period home, ideally situated in the heart of the sought-after village of Probus, within easy reach of the square and local amenities. The property combines traditional features with practical living space, offering a versatile layout suited to a range of buyers.

The accommodation is arranged over two floors and retains a wealth of character throughout. The lounge features exposed beamed ceilings and a wood burning stove, creating a warm and cosy room, with stairs rising to the first floor. This room opens through to the dining area, which also enjoys exposed beams with a natural flow through to the kitchen and conservatory. The conservatory offers a pleasant outlook over the garden and provides an additional reception area with good natural light.

Also on the ground floor is a useful bedroom or study, ideal for those seeking flexible living arrangements, complemented by its own shower room/WC. To the first floor, there are two well-proportioned bedrooms along with a separate shower room/WC.

Externally, the property benefits from a rear garden enjoying a southerly aspect, ensuring a good degree of sunlight throughout the day. The garden is mainly laid to lawn with a selection of seating areas.

PROBUS

Probus is a thriving community approximately six miles east of Truro and a little further west of St. Austell. The village has an excellent range of everyday facilities including Parish Church, public house, primary school, farm shop, general stores with post office, village hall, Chinese and Indian takeaways and even a fish and chip shop. A very regular bus service connects to both St. Austell and Truro and here there are a wider range of facilities including banks, building societies, schools, colleges and main line railway link to London (Paddington). The village is also easily accessible to the picturesque Roseland Peninsula and many of the beaches along the south Cornish coast.
