GENERAL REMARKS AND LOCATION

Nare View is located in the prestigious coastal hamlet of Rosevine within a short walking distance of Porthcurnick Beach. It is beautifully positioned to take in the fabulous sea and country views overlooking Gerrans Bay towards Nare Head and Gull Rock whilst at the rear there are views to the open countryside. The sale is occasioned by virtue of a deceased estate and hence it is a rare opportunity to acquire a spacious 4 bedroom property built to a good modern standard and with huge potential to further enhance/remodel or even extend, subject to any necessary consent.

The hamlet of Rosevine is accessed via a minor county maintained road which is a cul-de-sac ending at Porthcurnick beach with the renowned Hidden Hut. It lies about one and a half miles from the village of Portscatho (although almost half the distance on foot along the beautiful South West coastal path) which together with neighbouring Gerrans is the nearest community of any size. Here there are two public houses, restaurant, local shop with post office, art galleries, squash and cricket clubs and even a doctors' surgery. The well known village of St. Mawes is approximately five miles away and has an all year round passenger ferry to Falmouth. Truro and St. Austell are both approximately fifteen miles by road. The King Harry ferry provides a shortcut to Falmouth and Truro.

THE DWELLING

The property is an attractive dormer bungalow replacing an earlier dwelling on the site demolished in 1997. It is of conventional cavity wall construction with rendered and part natural stone facing under a natural slate roof incorporating projecting dormer windows to both front and rear elevations. All windows are double glazed and there is a comprehensive system of oil fired central heating.

Philip Martin

The property has been the cherished home of the late owner for many years and whilst a comfortable easy-to-manage home the accommodation would now possibly benefit from updating and refurbishment. In this respect there is also huge potential to remodel the structure perhaps befitting the lovely site that it occupies.

It is important to note that the owners of the adjacent property to the south (The Wheel House) have recently (30th August 2024) obtained detailed planning consent for its demolition and replacement with a new dormer style contemporary residence which will greatly add to the appeal and prestige of the immediate area and will particularly benefit Nare View. Plans can be inspected on the Cornwall Council Planning Portal (App PA24/05061).
