GENERAL COMMENTS

37 Treyew Road is a substantial five bedroom Edwardian townhouse with exceptional interior presentation, a wealth of original character features and outstanding far reaching city and cathedral views.

This property has been used as a wonderful and cherished family home for many years and has the potential to continue as one house suitable for a large or growing family or possible conversion into a guest house, amongst other uses and possibilities.

In all the commodious accommodation is arranged over three floors and incorporates 5 bedrooms, 2 reception rooms, kitchen/dining room, bathroom and two shower rooms offering over 2,000 square feet of space.

The property has a lovely rear courtyard garden with two small outbuildings and across a vehicular lane, a very private separate garden with a garage and parking.

TRURO
