THE PROPERTY

Holiday House is a substantial detached house located within the heart of the popular village of Tregony. The location is particularly appealing due to being within walking distance of both the primary and secondary schools, as well as being close to the South Coast and the wonderful scenery and beaches. The property offers sizeable, family accommodation throughout whilst enjoying wonderful countryside views. Briefly the accommodation comprises:- entrance hall, large sitting/dining room, kitchen, w.c., study or fourth bedroom and conservatory to the ground floor with three bedrooms, the master with en-suite and large balcony enjoying the stunning views and a family bathroom to the first floor. The property is oil centrally heated with double glazing throughout. Outside, the gardens are very private and enjoy the splendid views, mainly laid to lawn with a variety of mature shrubs and plants. At the lower end of the garden are former toilets/shower rooms for the original holiday park whereby there is great scope and potential for a detached dwelling subject to the necessary planning consent. There is a large detached double garage with timber store behind and an electric roller door. Viewing is highly recommended.

TREGONY

Tregony is a thriving community, sometimes referred to as the "gateway to the Roseland" offering a post office, shop, pub, Churches and both primary and secondary schools are within a short 10 minute walk. The village is easily accessible to the whole of the Roseland Peninsula and hence very much a centre for tourism during the summer months. The city of Truro is about seven miles and St. Austell slightly further. The village also has the benefit of a regular bus service. The harbourside villages of Portloe and Portscatho are each about four and seven miles distant, and St Mawes is about 11 miles to the south.

In greater detail the accommodation comprises (all measurements are approximate):
