THE PROPERTY

Enjoying an attractive edge-of-village position and occupying a generous plot of approximately 0.3 acres, Cedarwood House is an impressive and highly adaptable family home offering a rare combination of space, versatility and modern energy efficiency.

Set back within its plot, the property benefits from extensive off-road parking for several vehicles, complemented by a double garage, hobby room and a separate studio/workshop—ideal for home working or creative pursuits.

The well-considered layout lends itself perfectly to modern family living, while also offering excellent flexibility for multi-generational use. There is clear potential to create a self-contained ground floor annexe for dependent relatives or possible letting, subject to the appropriate consents.

Internally, the accommodation is both well-proportioned and adaptable, providing three/four double bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with en-suite facilities, together with a family bathroom. The living space is arranged to suit both everyday living and entertaining, comprising a comfortable lounge, formal dining room, well-appointed kitchen, conservatory, utility room and a useful study area.

Of particular note are the property's energy-efficient features, which include solar panels with a Tesla battery and air source heating, offering reduced running costs and an environmentally conscious approach to modern living.

Cedarwood House represents a rare opportunity to acquire a substantial and flexible home in an enviable edge-of-village setting, ideally suited to families seeking space, adaptability and long-term sustainability.
