GENERAL REMARKS AND LOCATION

This property has the unique appeal of being a modern easy-to-run dwelling close to the city centre and affording a versatile arrangement of accommodation. It directly fronts Kenwyn Road and is arranged on two levels whereby the main accommodation is at higher ground floor level opening directly to the outside space to the rear (effectively a bungalow) and the lower ground floor comprising a self-contained suite opening to the main entrance. It will appeal to wide range of the buying public but especially someone needing a low maintenance home on one level and with a self-contained guest suite below.

The main accommodation currently comprises a splendid open plan living space with excellent fitted kitchen complete with gas-fired Aga, there are 2 bedrooms including the master bedroom (which previously comprised 2 bedrooms) and all of which open directly to the rear sun terrace and a luxury bathroom with spa bath and separate shower. The bedroom on the lower ground floor has a small kitchen area and its own shower room. A long store room/utility area is integral to one side of the dwelling and opens to both front and rear. There is full gas fired central heating and double glazing throughout.

A feature of Kenwyn Lodge is parking for several vehicles including a small car port. The rear paved sun terrace is also another feature and the level space beyond is left ready for further landscaping. Viewing of this property is essential.

Truro is renowned for its excellent shopping centre, fine selection of restaurants, bars, private and state schools and main line railway link to London (Paddington). The Hall for Cornwall is also a popular venue providing all year round entertainment and other cultural facilities include the Royal Cornwall Museum and the historic Cathedral.
