GENERAL COMMENTS

Beechleigh is a truly unique and very special property located in a secluded, but very accessible, rural position between the popular villages of Probus and Ladock. The property comprises a detached bungalow with fabulous gardens, grounds and land that extends to approximately twelve acres. The gardens and grounds are a sheer delight with an array of established shrubs, trees and plants, together with several ponds, and it is a natural haven for wildlife. The land is mature pasture, recently grazed by sheep and perfect for equestrian use or hobby farming. The bungalow has evolved over the years with several extensions and now offers spacious accommodation and a large foot print. The original section is a Cornish Unit so the property is unlikely to be mortgageable so only suitable for cash purchasers. The accommodation extends to approximately 1,685 square feet and includes three/four bedrooms, the master with en-suite, kitchen, large lounge with dining area, garden room, further lounge (or fourth bedroom), front sun porch, utility room, bathroom and additional w.c. A tarmac drive provides parking for four cars and there is a detached double garage. The country lane divides the property with the bungalow and 2.6 acres on one side and 9.2 acres on the other side with the ponds, garden and larger field. Generous gardens surround the bungalow and above is an enclosed sloping field with stables. The whole property enjoys a sunny aspect and the setting is very peaceful with lots of private areas.

LOCATION

Beechleigh is located in the parish of Probus and is half way between the villages of Ladock and Probus. Ladock village is a thriving community with facilities including a public house, church, primary school and modern village hall, offering many activities and clubs. There are more extensive facilities and shops in Probus which is approximately two miles away including an excellent farm shop, public house, church, doctors surgery and very regular bus service to Truro (approximately eight miles away). Beechleigh lies almost equal distance of both north and south Cornish coasts and is only four miles from the main A30, the arterial route providing access throughout the entire county.

GARDENS AND GROUNDS

Mature gardens surround Beechleigh including lawns and many mature shrubs and plants providing colour and interest. The bungalow faces due east and enjoys the morning sun at the front and the afternoon and evening sun at the rear. The front garden is mainly lawn with Cornish stone retaining walls, several large camellias and feature willow. The lawn continues along the side to the rear where a terrace provides lots of sitting out space accessed from the garden room so perfect for outside dining and enjoying the evening sun. The rear garden backs onto fields and is extremely private and sheltered.

On the opposite side of the lane is a further garden that has been landscaped and is truly magnificent. There are a number of ponds that attract lots of wildlife and birds including moorhens, ducks, Canada geese. heron and even a Kingfisher has been spotted. There are many specimen shrubs, trees and plants that have been added over the years creating this natural oasis which is very special.

LAND

The land is divided by the country lane that leads from Probus to Ladock and in addition to the formal gardens includes two paddocks. The smaller field extending to just over two acres is located to the southern side of the bungalow and has recently been grazed by sheep. The vendors have their chickens here and former wooden stables are currently used for storage. There are far reaching views from this land. The larger paddock is beyond the ponds and is currently grazed by horses. This field is approximately seven acres and is enclosed within a natural hedge and fenced boundary.

SERVICES

Mains water and electricity. Private drainage. The mains water is metered at the property and comes via the neighbouring farm.

N.B.

The electrical circuit, appliances and heating system have not been tested by the agents.
