GENERAL COMMENTS

Rosehill Cottage is a very attractive detached modern house located in a quiet, tucked away position within the sought after village of Ladock. The house was built in 2000 to a very high standard with concrete block cavity walls and with high level of insulation resulting in low running costs. The accommodation includes three bedrooms and bathroom on the first floor, the master bedroom has an ensuite. The ground floor has a very well proportioned sitting room, kitchen/dining room, cloakroom and entrance hallway. All of the windows are double glazed and there is oil fired central heating. Outside is a private rear and side garden, driveway parking for two cars and a single garage.

LOCATION

Ladock is a thriving community approximately six miles east of Truro city. Village facilities include public house, primary school, parish church and superb village hall with regular clubs and activities. Probus is within a couple of miles where there are further facilities and Truro which is renowned for its excellent shops and fine selection of bars, restaurants and main line railway link to London (Paddington). The house is also ideally located for access to the south and north coast and Newquay airport is approximately thirteen miles to the north.
