GENERAL COMMENTS

26 Treventon Road is a spacious semi detached house located in the heart of Portscatho and enjoying fabulous sea, coastal and harbour views from the front over Gerrans Bay including Nare Head and Gul Rock. The house has been improved during our client's ownership including a newly fitted kitchen and bathroom and is well presented throughout with good size rooms, most of which enjoy the views. The house is set well back from Treventon Road and benefits from driveway parking with the possibility of creating additional parking across the access road. The accommodation includes three bedrooms, bathroom and separate w.c on the first floor with sitting room, dining room, kitchen, cloakroom, store and outhouse/workshop downstairs. The property benefits from double glazing throughout and economy seven electric heating. Outside is a large enclosed rear garden which enjoys privacy and a sunny aspect with many mature shrubs, vegetable beds and well stocked mature boundaries. At the side is driveway parking and at the front is a gently sloping lawn which could be changed to additional parking if required.

PORTSCATHO

The villages of Portscatho and neighbouring Gerrans between them offer a range of shops, two public houses, social club, galleries, post office, primary school, butcher and doctors surgery. The village is situated approximately five miles from St. Mawes which has a regular foot passenger ferry service to Falmouth. The city of Truro is approximately sixteen miles by road but there is also a short cut route via the King Harry Ferry. Sailing facilities are available at nearby Percuil, there are a variety of beaches in the area whilst coastal and inland walks abound and most of which are owned and protected by the National Trust.
