VERYAN

Veryan is situated in the heart of The Roseland Peninsula and is famous for its picturesque round houses built by a local clergyman in the 19th century. The village lies within a mile of the sandy beaches of Pendower and Carne where there is access to some superb coastal footpaths and open National Trust land with beautiful walks. The Green is on the edge of the village and it is just a short walk down to the centre of the village which offers a thriving community with excellent day to day facilities, including a Post office, primary school, church, pub and sport club with indoor bowls and tennis courts. There is a local bus service connecting to St. Mawes and Truro. For a more comprehensive range of shopping facilities the cathedral city of Truro is approximately 12 miles distance and offers banking and shopping facilities and an assortment of recreational activities. There is also a mainline railway station linking to London Paddington.
