THE PROPERTY

This charming link detached bungalow offers the perfect blend of practical living and modern design. The property has been thoughtfully renovated and is presented in immaculate condition. A standout feature is the large vaulted kitchen/dining room extension, adorned with Velux windows which floods the space with natural light. This spacious and contemporary addition adds a touch of luxury to the home, making it perfect for both everyday living and entertaining.

No expense has been spared during its complete renovation which is reflected in the quality fitted kitchen and bathroom. In all, the current accommodation comprises; Entrance porch, entrance hall, sitting room, kitchen/dining room, three bedrooms, family bathroom, external bar, hot tub room and garage with W.C.

In addition to the inviting interiors, this property offers a large garage, providing ample space for storage and parking. The landscaped gardens surrounding the property are a true delight, offering a tranquil escape from the hustle and bustle of daily life. You'll find an outside bar, perfect for enjoying outdoor gatherings.

LOCATION

Redruth offers a mix of historical and modern attractions. The town's rich mining heritage is evident in its architecture and museums, such as the award-winning Heartlands, which showcases Cornwall's mining history. In Redruth there are a selection of shops and a comprehensive secondary school whilst between Redruth and Camborne there are a selection of out-of-town stores and supermarkets. The nearest beach is at Portreath, there is sailing on nearby Stithians Reservoir and golf at Tehidy Country Park. The cathedral city of Truro is about 12 miles away.

Truro is renowned for its excellent shopping centre, fine selection of restaurants, bars, private and state schools and main line railway link to London (Paddington). The Hall for Cornwall is also a popular venue providing all year round entertainment and other cultural facilities include the Royal Cornwall Museum and the historic Cathedral.
