THE PROPERTY

Rosebud Cottage is a three bedroom semi-detached cottage situated within the highly popular and desirable village location of Probus. The cottage is double fronted and boasts character throughout with an inglenook fireplace and wood burning stove, a spiral staircase and exposed ceiling beams. In all, the accommodation comprises; large sitting room, bedroom, kitchen, dining/sun room, bathroom and utility to the ground floor with two further double bedrooms to the first floor. Externally there is a rear enclosed garden laid to patio with mature shrubs and flowerbeds. There is also a greenhouse, timber shed and wood store. The property benefits from mains gas central heating and double glazing throughout. The cottage also owns a section of land, roughly 50 yards further down the road that provides off road parking for numerous vehicles.

PROBUS

Probus is a thriving community approximately six miles east of Truro and a little further west of St. Austell. The village has an excellent range of everyday facilities including Parish Church, public house, primary school, farm shop, general stores with post office, village hall, Chinese and Indian takeaways and even a fish and chip shop. A very regular bus service connects to both St. Austell and Truro and here there are a wider range of facilities including banks, building societies, schools, colleges and main line railway link to London (Paddington). The village is also easily accessible to the picturesque Roseland Peninsula and many of the beaches along the south Cornish coast.

In greater detail the accommodation comprises (all measurements are approximate):
