GENERAL COMMENTS

As the name suggests, Surf View occupies an elevated position above the golden sandy surfing beach of Porthtowan on the dramatic North Cornish Coast, commanding spectacular views across the shoreline and rolling Atlantic waves. The outlook is truly breath-taking. Perfectly positioned on West Cliff, the property enjoys what is arguably one of the most desirable settings within the village and indeed along this stunning stretch of coastline.

In recent years, this four-bedroom property has undergone an extensive programme of refurbishment and is now beautifully presented throughout, offering comfortable and stylish accommodation. The gardens rise gently behind the property, providing a pleasant backdrop, while a sun deck to the side offers the perfect place to relax and enjoy the coastal setting.

Surf View presents an exceptional opportunity for a variety of buyers. It would make a superb coastal home, an attractive holiday retreat, or a highly desirable holiday letting investment. Equally, given its enviable position and the continued growth and investment seen within the village, the property may also offer potential for redevelopment, subject to any necessary consents.

Porthtowan itself is renowned for its excellent surfing beach and vibrant coastal lifestyle, yet still retains the charm of a relatively undiscovered gem along the North Cornish coast — a location with clear potential for the future.

THE PROPERTY

The accommodation is versatile with most principal rooms enjoying a view over the beach. The recently replaced windows provide plenty natural light and a feeling of space throughout. The open plan living room is a real feature with the kitchen, dining and sitting room situated in the middle of the house with bi-folding doors opening to the front. The master bedroom with en-suite and sun room to one side and the remaining three bedrooms and shower room to the other.

The rear covered courtyard is a very useful part of the property. ideal for storing surf boards. This in turn opens to the utility room. A flight of steps lead up to the sun deck and then up and through the terraced gardens, all of which enjoy far reaching views.

PORHTTOWAN

Set in narrow winding valley flanked by impressive granite cliffs is the seaside village of Porthtowan which has a great beach and a wealth of heritage. Its name comes from the Cornish words "porth" and "tewynn" to mean landing place at the sand dunes. Porthtowan is a relatively un-commercialized village renowned for its superb surfing and beautiful Blue Flag beach. Designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB), along the coast are Gullyn Rock, Diamond Rock and sandstone and slate cliffs. Porthtowan itself has a small selection of shops for day to day needs and there is also the well known Blue Bar on the edge of the beach.

A little over a century ago the scene was very different. Mining flourished with the most notable mine, the Wheal Towan copper mine, generating incredible wealth and owned by Ralph Allen Daniell of Trelissick. Located just to the north of Porthtowan at Chapel Porth is the Towan Roath engine house, the archetypal Cornish mine dramatically positioned on the cliffs overlooking the beach.

MUNDIC BLOCK

A Concrete Screening Test was undertaken in 2018. One out of the five samples taken and assessed produced an overall "Classification C" identifying one type of unsatisfactory concrete. Therefore the property may not be considered suitable for standard mortgage purposes.
