THE PROPERTY

Originally two separate cottages, now converted into one spacious two bedroom property which has been lovingly refurbished during our clients ownership. The property is very well presented throughout and is much larger than first apparent. Early viewing is highly recommended.

LOCATION

Penmarth, often referred to as Carnmenellis, is a hamlet in Cornwall about 4 miles west of Penryn and about 4 miles south of Redruth. The city centre of Truro is approx. 13 miles away and the town of Helston is about 8 miles away.

Stithians reservoir is a stones throw from the property and is the largest inland water in West Cornwall, there is lots on offer from water sports, fishing, walks and a café.

REDRUTH

Redruth offers a mix of historical and modern attractions. The town's rich mining heritage is evident in its architecture and museums. In Redruth there are a selection of shops and a comprehensive secondary school whilst between Redruth and Camborne there are a selection of out-of-town stores and supermarkets. The nearest beach is at Portreath, there is sailing on nearby Stithians Reservoir and golf at Tehidy Country Park. The cathedral city of Truro is about 12 miles away.

FALMOUTH

The historic port of Falmouth has undergone major redevelopment in recent years with huge investment and is now thriving. The town has an excellent range of everyday facilities including banks, building societies, restaurants, schools and colleges as well as a branch railway line providing regular access to Truro. The harbour and beaches are significant attractions of the town and since 2003 Falmouth has also been home to the National Maritime Museum. For sailing enthusiasts there is direct access to Carrick Roads and the River Fal and several yacht marinas close by. It also has its own university with a campus at Woodlane and Tremough.

HELSTON

The town of Helston is an old market town which lies mid way between Falmouth and Penzance. Helston services as the gateway to the Lizard Peninsula. The town has a mixture of Georgian and Victorian architectural properties and has many historic buildings including the Blue Anchor, Angel Hotel and Guild Hall. It is the home of the famous Flora Day and Furry Dance and provides for a wide variety of daily needs including primary and secondary schools, banks, post office, shops and supermarkets. From Helston there is good access to the Lizard Peninsula as well as west Cornwall where there are many fabulous walks and stunning beaches.

TRURO

Truro is renowned for its excellent shopping centre, fine selection of restaurants, bars, private and state schools and main line railway link to London (Paddington). The Hall for Cornwall is also a popular venue providing all year round entertainment and other cultural facilities include the Royal Cornwall Museum and the historic Cathedral.
