GENERAL COMMENTS

A unique opportunity to purchase a deceptively spacious detached property with excellent uninterrupted water views over the peaceful waters of Restronguet Creek with the added bonus of 60' direct water frontage, private slipway and pontoon. The bungalow and gardens enjoy a sunny southerly aspect, the water views are truly magnificent with the beautiful Carclew Estate beyond as well as an abundance of wildlife and birds at low tide.

Trenhayle is a surprisingly spacious detached bungalow located along Quay Road in Devoran which is one of the most sought after villages between Truro and Falmouth. The accommodation is light and spacious, all the principal rooms enjoy the water views. There are three double bedrooms, kitchen/dining room, sitting room, two bathrooms, utility room, cloakroom and integral garage. The level garden is predominantly lawn with well stocked flower bed borders and a large terrace provides lots of sitting out space to enjoy the views. At the bottom of the garden is a jetty and slipway giving direct access to Restronguet Creek therefore ideal for boating enthusiasts. The bungalow is set well back from Quay Road and extremely private, a driveway provides lots of parking and there is a level front garden. Trenhayle is double glazed and benefits from mains gas central heating. It is being sold with no onward chain and must be viewed to fully appreciate.

LOCATION

Trenhayle is located along Quay Road which is arguably the most sought after road within the village and set well back from Quay Road and enjoys a high degree of privacy. The village of Devoran lies about five miles south of Truro, just off the A39 Truro to Falmouth road and is at the head of Restronguet Creek which is a tributary of the River Fal. The village has a strong community anchored by the village hall with regular events on Devoran Quay and a wonderful children's playground. The area is well known for scenic attractions with many walk-ways in the area including the "tramway" along the edge of the creek which is known for its abundance of wildlife and shore birds and provides a lovely walk to the hamlets of Point and Penpol. Local facilities include the Parish church, popular public house, doctors surgery and primary school with further facilities including a small supermarket in nearby Carnon Downs. Devoran lies close to the sailing waters of the Fal Estuary, the city of Truro and the harbour town of Falmouth are within easy driving distance. The village also benefits from a regular bus service.

Steps lead from the brick driveway to a side path that leads via a lockable wooden gate into the rear garden.

REAR GARDEN

The rear garden is a sheer delight and enjoys a sunny southerly aspect with magnificent views over the creek towards the wooded Carclew estate. The garden enjoys approximately seventy feet of direct water frontage, beyond the garden is the shingle beach exposed at low tide encouraging many species of wildlife and a vast selection of shore birds. Here is a decked wooden jetty, concrete landing area and concrete slipway that leads onto the foreshore and a running mooring line. The garden is mainly level lawn and pathways run along both sides of the garden to the foreshore. In a sheltered position below the bungalow is a patio providing sitting out space with rockery and many shrubs and plants including heathers, roses, camellias, agapanthus, and granite steps lead from the lawn up to a further raised terrace providing additional sitting space and access into the conservatory. The path continues along the side of the bungalow, past the kitchen, where there are raised flower beds, outside tap, access into the rear hallway and a gate leads to the front.
