GENERAL COMMENTS

54 Parc An Dillon Road is a fabulous detached house that has been transformed by the current owners over the last few years. Originally a modest detached bungalow, it has been imaginatively extended into a superb two storey house which makes the best of the fabulous panoramic sea views. The accommodation includes four double bedrooms (two on each floor), the master bedroom is particularly large with amazing sea and harbour views. In addition there is a large lounge/dining room with full height, feature ceiling, kitchen/breakfast room and two bathrooms. Planning permission has been granted for a side extension providing annexe accommodation with potential to create a holiday let or extra accommodation for a larger family with additional sitting room, bedroom and bathroom. Outside is a private enclosed rear garden that enjoys sun all day and fabulous sea views. At the front is a further lawned garden and tarmac driveway providing parking for three cars. The house benefits from air source heating with underfloor heating on the ground floor and conventional radiators upstairs and together with high levels of insulation guarantees low running costs.

LOCATION

The villages of Portscatho and neighbouring Gerrans between them offer a range of shops, two public houses, social club, galleries, post office, primary school, butcher and doctors surgery. The village is situated approximately five miles from St. Mawes which has a regular foot passenger ferry service to Falmouth. The city of Truro is approximately sixteen miles by road but there is also a short cut route via the King Harry Ferry. Sailing facilities are available at nearby Percuil, there are a variety of beaches in the area whilst coastal and inland walks abound and most of which are owned and protected by the National Trust.

In greater detail the accommodation comprises (all measurements are approximate):
